V. METHODS

- A. Teaching and Learning
Research, Reading, Writing, Presentation, and Defense
- B. Grading
 - 1. On-going Evaluation: Thesis-level assessment is conducted initially and orally through regular meetings with advisors, directors, or committee members. Faculty members may request progress reports, information, or data narratives at any time, and they may evaluate formally or informally student materials, notes, discussion information, presentations, surveys, and research readings as a basis and background for regular meeting assessment.
 - 2. Final Evaluation: The student's thesis committee will evaluate the student and his or her final product upon the student's oral defense of the thesis. Final evaluation is a reflection of individual student performance and/or competency as demonstrated through the completion of all course requirements as outlined in this syllabus. Final course grades are arrived at by consensus of the student's thesis committee.

VI. POLICIES

A. The Bible as Required Textbook

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

B. Academic Honesty

Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying the author. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own. All papers must be submitted in APA format and submitted to Turnitin prior to uploading onto Canvas.

C. Accommodations Statement

Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the DSS Director (dss@calvary.edu) of any condition that may require support.

D. Style Guide

All class papers must follow the APA style guide according to Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 7th edition.

E. The Clark Academic Center

The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu) is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for Calvary University students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.

VII. COURSE SCHEDULE: In consultation with and by approval of the advisor, director, or committee, thesis students should submit a proposal for scheduling the completion of their work from start to finish.
