III. REQUIREMENTS (See Canvas for specifics)

A. Secure an internship location and supervisor.

1. Consult with the Course Instructor about identifying and securing an internship position in a local church.
2. Contact a local church pastor to receive his agreement for the student to serve an internship in his local church and under his supervision (or that of another qualified ministry leader).
3. Note: The internship is not official until the Course Instructor has approved the internship plan submitted by the Internship Supervisor.

B. Complete all internship requirements.

1. Note: The maximum benefit for the student will occur with the maximum exposure to practical ministry; therefore, if at all possible, the student is encouraged to coordinate an internship that is longer than the required minimum length of 160 hours of supervised ministry.
2. The minimum internship requirements are as follows (Note: these are also described in the Internship Manual posted in the Syllabus link in Canvas).
 - a. Teach/preach 4 times.
 - b. Plan and lead a major event.
 - c. Meet weekly with the internship supervisor.
 - d. Attend committee and board meetings.
 - e. Oversee a specific on-going aspect of ministry.
 - f. Plan and lead a worship service.
 - g. Home/hospital/site visitation.
 - h. Observe counseling session(s).
 - i. Write ministry communication (e.g., emails/texts, newsletter, worship bulletin).
 - j. Be observed by seasoned ministry leaders.
 - k. Read a ministry related book, discuss its contents with the internship supervisor, and write a Critical Book Review to submit to the Course Instructor. (Note: Instructions for this assignment are posted to the course portal.)
 - l. Make weekly journal entries.
 - m. Contact the Course Instructor on a regular basis.
 - n. Other ministry opportunities unique to the internship context.
 - o. Conduct an end-of-Internship meeting with the Internship Supervisor.

3. Note: The internship is not completed until the student has submitted all the required documents and the intern has met with the Course Instructor for the required interview following the internship.
- C. Keep a weekly journal.
1. Every ministry week, record the specific ministries observed and performed and the time spent in those ministry activities.
 2. Following the record of weekly ministry activities, make appropriate observations of experience gained, lessons learned, questions raised, and personal applications to make from the week's activities. (Note: The purpose of this journal is more than to record activities; it is to be a record that which will remind the student of lessons learned as well as a guide for needed further training or learning.)
 3. Submit this journal to the Course Instructor as directed in the Internship Manual.
- D. Minister as directed by the supervising pastor.
1. While the kinds of ministries to be performed are listed above and in the Internship Manual, it should be carefully noted that ministry opportunities vary from church to church.
 2. Therefore, the internship supervisor is free to direct the intern to perform ministry responsibilities not specifically listed in the Internship Manual but which he deems appropriate for experiencing the full range of ministry in his given context.
 3. Note: The intern and internship supervisor may freely contact the Course Instructor with any question concerning ministry opportunities.
- E. Contact the Course Instructor during the internship.
1. Make personal contact with the Course Instructor once per week during the internship.
 2. The contacts can be via email, text message, phone or face-to-face.
 3. The purpose of these contacts is to affirm the progression of the internship as well as to process any concerns.
- F. Submit all written assignments, reports, and evaluation forms.
1. These assignments, reports, and evaluations are all listed and described in the Internship Manual.
 2. These should be completed according to the schedule presented in the Internship Manual.
- G. Meet with the Course Instructor following the internship.
1. Schedule an appointment with the Course Instructor for a personal interview and evaluation after all assignments and written requirements have been submitted and all requirements in the Internship Manual have been completed.
 2. This interview can be done in person or via teleconferencing no later than two weeks after completing the internship.

V. MATERIALS

- A. The Bible. The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard (NASB, English Standard Version (ESV), New King James (NKJV), or King James (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.
- B. Internship Manual [posted in the Syllabus link in Canvas.]

VI. NOTES

- A. About Disabilities: Students with disabilities have the responsibility of informing the DSS Coordinator (dss@calvary.edu) of any disabling condition that may require support.
- B. About Assistance for All Course Assignments: The Clark Academic Center (learning@calvary.edu), located in the library building, is dedicated to providing free academic assistance for all CU students. Student tutors aid with all facets of the writing process, tutor in various subject areas, prepare students for exams, and facilitate tests. Please take advantage of this service.
- C. About Changes to this Syllabus: The instructor reserves the right to make changes to this syllabus at any time during the course, but any changes made will only be done after clearly communicating the need for the change and the specific change to be made via in-class announcement and Canvas announcement.

- D. About Written Assignments: All class papers must follow the Turabian style according to A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, 8th edition and the Calvary Style Guide, 2019 update.
- E. About Plagiarism: Plagiarism is defined as copying any part of a book or paper without identifying that source. This also includes taking another person's ideas and presenting them as your own without identifying the source. Any assignment that includes plagiarism will receive a zero (0) grade.
- F. About Course Grade: See the grading scale in the University Catalog for specific grading scale that will be used for final course grade.
