I. Description of the Course

Building upon the foundation laid in Greek Intensive 1, this study completes the basic survey of elementary Greek grammar and includes the reading of the text of 1 John as well as wide reading in the Greek New Testament.

This is a blended class, meaning that both campus and online students take this class together. Campus students attend the classes in person, online students attend the classes via the online classroom. All interaction and assignments for campus and online students are done in the online classroom.

II. Course Objectives

A. General competencies to be achieved.

The student will become increasingly familiar with the language, grammar, and actual text of the Greek New Testament. A foundation will be laid for exegetical study in succeeding semesters and later ministry with a view to communicating the word of God with clarity and accuracy.

B. Specific competencies to be achieved.

The student will:

1. Learn and review the basic vocabulary of the Greek New Testament down to all words used 50x or more in the NT (PLO 1,2,3,4,5) (A 1,2,4-11,14,15)
2. Complete learning the basic elements of Greek grammar with special focus on the use of verbs, participles, and infinitives. Skill in parsing verbs, participles, and infinitives will be emphasized. Use of these elements in building sermon outlines will be introduced. (PLO 1,2,3,4,5) (A 2,3,5-12,14,15)

3. Translate increasingly difficult passages from Greek and gain confidence in working with the actual Greek New Testament. The book of 1 John will be translated. (PLO 1,2,3,4,5) (A 10,11,13)

4. Do specific exercises in 1 John designed to develop exegetical skill and to show how to use Greek in ministry. (PLO 1,2,3,4,5) (A 3,11,12,13)

III. Textbooks

A. The Bible.

The Bible is a required textbook in every course at Calvary University. To facilitate academic level study, students are required to use for assignments and research an English translation or version of the Bible based on formal equivalence (meaning that the translation is generally word-for-word from the original languages), including any of the following: New American Standard Bible (NASB), English Standard Version (ESV), New King James Version (NKJV), or King James Version (KJV). Other translations and versions based on dynamic equivalence (paraphrases, and thought-for-thought translations like NLT and NIV) may be used as supplemental sources. Please ask the professor if you have questions about a particular translation or version.

Nestle Aland 28 Greek New Testament – both including critical apparatus; Septuaginta (LXX), a Greek Lexicon of the New Testament and Other Early Christian Literature (BDAG) by Bauer, Danker, Arndt, and Gingrich; Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament (HALOT) by Koehler and Baumgartner.

IV. Requirements of the Course

The basic format of the course will be to first cover the remaining chapters (25–35) in Mounce's Grammar. For each chapter the student will be required to read the chapter, learn new vocabulary, do the workbook parsing exercises, memorize parsing paradigms, do workbook translation and read Mounce's notes on grammar in the workbook. Quizzes will be generally take-home. There will be pop quizzes on vocabulary and grammar as needed.

The student will translate exercises #'s 1-10 at a minimum in Mounce chapters 25–35 and be prepared to read them in Greek and to translate them orally in class the day on which they are due. Written translations #1-10 from each chapter will be collected when the student finishes chapter 35.

The student will then complete the assigned exegetical exercises in the textbooks by Wilson/Vlachos using the necessary reference books found in a special reserve section and the reference section of the Calvary Bible College Library. The student should begin work on these assignments as early in the semester as possible.

The student will translate 1 John with helps given in the textbooks (Baugh, Wilson & Vlachos). Translation will be stressed this semester.

The student will be expected to know all vocabulary words in the New Testament that occur 50x or more and special vocabulary from 1 John.

The student will write a 4 page (double-spaced) analysis of the benefits of the book Toward an Exegetical Theology.

Each student will choose one paragraph (pericope) from 1 John in the UBS Greek Testament, exegete it according to a prescribed format, and present his or her discoveries in written and oral form to the class during the next to last class period of the semester. The student will learn to exegetically outline their passage (phrasing).

There will be two unit exams and a final exam. See the assignment schedule for the dates of these. No make-up quizzes, exams, or presentations are allowed except in the case of illness or absence due to some circumstance outside of your control. Late assignments will be docked 10% if one class period late, 20% if two class periods late, 50% if three class periods late, and will not be accepted beyond that point. Please make yourself aware of all due dates and locate the reference books necessary for completing the assignments in Wilson and Vlachos well ahead of the due date. This is the responsibility of the student. Please inform the professor in advance of any anticipated absences (Office number: 816-322-0110/322-5152 ext. 1503).

The student is urged to take any quizzes or exams ahead of time when an absence is anticipated. The faculty views attending classes at the college or graduate level as a necessary requirement of each course.

The student will complete the parsing assignments for chapters 25-36 in the Mounce workbook.
